

January 13, 2006

Dear Parent or Guardian:

It's that time of year to secure your child's place at St. John Bosco School for 2006-2007. Do all that you can to provide your child with an education that will give him/her the skills needed to become responsible, contributing citizens in this world and in the next.

Please fill out the enclosed re-admission form(s) completely and return them or bring to the school office with your $125.00 re-admission fee by Friday, February 10, 2006. The re-admission fee after February 10, 2006 will increase by $25.00 each month (i.e., March-$150.00; April-$175.00, etc).

Credit cards (Master Card and Visa) are accepted and encouraged at no extra cost. The drop box, located in the front office is available for your convenience.

Those who apply for CEO Horizon must submit the following documents to the finance office, as soon as received:

- original of Horizon Scholarship Award (parents must copy and retain copy for their records)
- copy of Scholarship agreement (parents turn in original to the CEO office)

Your account will not be recognized as a CEO account until these documents have been received.

Please note, the Horizon Program funds DO NOT cover the following school obligations for the school year 2006 – 2007.

- Re-admission Fee
- Required Service Hour Program
- School Uniform and School Shoes
- School Supplies
- Field Trip Costs
- Extra-curricular activities
- After School Care
- Mandatory Fund Raising Activities
- Any other educational/recreational costs involving classes and/or extra-curricular activities
- School supplies

Let's keep working together throughout this year. See the other side of this letter for what's new for 2006-2007. St. John Bosco School is a privileged environment for your child to receive a Salesian, Catholic education, an advantage for life.

Through Jesus and Mary,
